Dawn Traver, M.Ed., is the Director of Waiver Operations for the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services. She began her work in the ID/DD field as a direct support professional in the Community Services Board system, conducted training and technical assistance related to best practices in the education of young children with disabilities at Hampton University, and organized recreation/self advocacy events for The Arc of Greater Williamsburg. She came to DBHDS in 1990, when Virginia first began implementing Medicaid funded community based services for persons with intellectual disability. Dawn has been engaged in policy and regulatory development related to the Intellectual Disability and Day Support waivers since 2007. She is involved with a number of workgroups and committees related to the implementation of the Settlement Agreement with the US Department of Justice, as well as the My Life, My Community ID/DD waiver redesign efforts currently underway. Dawn oversees the operations of the DD waiver unit, ID waiver preauthorization, ID/DD waiver regulatory/policy staff, and Supports Intensity Scale® implementation. Ms. Traver obtained her undergraduate and graduate degrees from The College of William and Mary.
