Minutes

Ms. Bohnhoff made a motion to accept the minutes of the November 18, 2011 meeting. Ms. Steele seconded the motion. The committee passed the motion and accepted the minutes.

Advocate's Report

Hillary Zaneveld reported Elaine Martin has resigned from this committee and thus there is one vacancy. Ms. Zaneveld encouraged providers to identify possible candidates for the vacancy. She will also consult with Mr. Daye to determine if the vacancy is for one of the mandated categories. Ms. Zaneveld reminded the providers that he/she may only miss one meeting per calendar year with a valid explanation for the absence. If a provider exceeds one absence during a calendar year, she will make a recommendation to licensing that the organization receive a citation.

Ms. Zaneveld reported that Nerissa Rhodes, a new human rights advocate is completing her orientation.

Ms. Zaneveld reported Mr. Daye will be providing regional training on human rights for committee members beginning in February or March 2012. The first training will most likely be held at Eastern State Hospital in Williamsburg, VA and the second training will be held at the Southeastern Training Center in Chesapeake, VA. Ms. Zaneveld reported that providers are welcome to attend the trainings. Providers may also donate refreshments to the trainings. She stated that any provider donating refreshments will be offered professional training for their staff. Mr. Daye will provide the training.
